Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1966, proudly dedicate our yearbook, the Argo, to Mr. David Snyder in appreciation for all he has done for us. During the three years Mr. Snyder has been at Adams, he has taught Sophomore and Senior English and German I and II. Besides being our Sophomore Class advisor, he has also done a fine job as speech director and paper staff advisor.

We are grateful to you, Mr. Snyder, for all your helpful assistance and interest in us as individuals as well as students.

In Memoriam

DAVID DOMINO

It is nearly a year since he has been gone.
He was so full of love and life on all those days. He seems so vulnerable now, when you think that each was the last time.
Soon the final day will come around again- as inexorably as it did last year. But expected this time.
It will find all of us different people than we were a year ago.
Learning to accept what was unthinkable when he was alive, changes you.
I don't think there is any consolation. What was lost cannot be replaced.
I must believe that he does not share our suffering now. I think for him- at least he will never know what sadness might have lain ahead. But know he will never know more- not age, nor stagnation, nor despair, nor crippling illness, nor loss of any more people he loved. His high noon kept all the freshness of the morning-and he died then, never knowing disillusionment.

"...he has gone,...

He is free and we must live. Those who love him most know that "the death you have dealt is more than the death which has swallowed you."

This is an excerpt from an article by Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy

Class History

In September of 1962 fifty-nine freshmen entered Adams High School to become the class of 1966. At their first class meeting, they elected Sally Osmundson, president; Karla Brechtel, vice-president; Dale Himebaugh, secretary; and Susan Osmundson, treasurer. Representing the class on the student council were Joyce Fisk and Susan Kinder. Adry Huemann and Susan Kinder were elected freshmen king and queen at a dance given by the seniors. The class built its first float for homecoming and called it "Sweet Dreams." At the beginning of the basketball season, Susan Kinder was elected B team cheerleader. In the spring, Jane Schissel won an award at Adams's first science fair. Darrel Staebler and Dave Domino lettered in baseball. Serving as class advisors for the year were Mr. Werner Pelto and Mr. John Morrison.

The class entered its sophomore year with two fewer members, Susan Kinder and Don Vogel. Officers elected were Dale Himebaugh, president; David Domino, vice-president; Mary Hartley, secretary; and Les Leocher, treasurer. Serving the class on the student council were Stu Torgerson, James Smith, and Susan Osmundson. Our advisors were Mr. David Snyder and Mr. Ronald Miller. Mary Hartley and Susan Osmundson were elected "B" team cheerleaders. Susan Osmundson, Mary Hartley, and Diane Eisterhold were majorettes. Our homecoming float was called "Drown 'Em." In March, Dale Himebaugh, Paul Meyers, Sally Mortenson, Jane Schissel, Sandra Shaw, and Stu Torgerson were elected to the National Honor Society. Elected by the junior class to serve at their banquet were Karla Brechtel, Dave Domino, Susan Osmundson, Dale Himebaugh, Joyce Fisk, Lester Leocher, Sally Johnson, Kent Bergene, Sally Osmundson, Stu Torgerson, Coral Larson, Dave Frein, Barb Noske, Jerry Wiste, Jane Schissel, Dave Voigt, Judy Freund, and Paul Meyers. Dave Domino and Jim Smith lettered in baseball, while Dale Himebaugh lettered in football.

Mary Hartley was elected class president at the first meeting of the class when we entered our junior year. Other officers included James Smith, vice-president; Dave Domino, secretary; Sally Mortenson, treasurer. Stu Torgerson returned as student council representative along with Sally Osmundson and Dale Himebaugh. The class presented "Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House" on November 5 and 6. The play was under the direction of Miss Peggy Jadry, with Sally Mortenson and Sally Osmundson as student directors. Under the direction of their advisors, Mr. Ronald Miller and Miss Janet Low, the class began work on their banquet and prom. On May 8, their work came to an end when the juniors and seniors attended the banquet with the theme "Paris in the Springtime" and the prom with the theme "Evening in Paris." Our homecoming float was "Feather the Field." Susan Osmundson was "A" team cheerleader. Dale Himebaugh was All-Conference in football, while Jerry Wiste, Don Irvin, Dave Voigt, and Dave Domino also lettered. Paul Meyers lettered in basketball, while Jim Smith, Stu Torgerson, and Paul lettered in baseball. Karla Brechtel was elected F.F.A. chapter sweetheart. Sally Mortenson was advanced to the regional speech contest. Jane Schissel was selected to attend Girls' State with Sally Johnson as alternate. In March, Karla Brechtel, Sally Johnson, Coral Larson, Shirley Matheis, and Sally Osmundson were initiated into the National Honor Society.

Our senior class began its last year with Mary Hartley as president, Kent Bergene as vice-president, Karla Brechtel as secretary, and Don Irvin as treasurer. The student council representatives were Sally Osmundson, president, Dale Himebaugh, vice-president, and Paul Meyers and Stu Torgerson. The class advisors were Mr. Miller and Mr. Larson. The Argo staff consisted of Stu Torgerson and Jane Schissel, co-editors, Sally Osmundson, Dale Himebaugh, Shirley Matheis, Karla Brechtel, and Mary Hartley. Elected as queen and king of homecoming were Sally Osmundson and Dale Himebaugh. Attendants were Coral Larson, Stu Torgerson, Susie Osmundson, and Jerry Wiste. "Eve of Destruction" was our homecoming float. The senior class was joined by Larry Junkers on Jan. 27. To raise money for our trip to Chicago, we sold candy, had a ham supper, and put on a class play. Our cheerleaders were Susie Osmundson, Coral Larson, Sally Osmundson, and Judy Freund. Majorettes were Susie Osmundson, Diane Eisterhold, head majorette, Mary Hartley, and Coral Larson. In basketball, Paul Meyers made All-conference, while Stu Torgerson also lettered. Darrel Staebler, Jerry Wiste, Stu Torgerson, Dale Himebaugh, Steve Klapperich, Don Irvin, Dave Voigt lettered in football. These four years have been a lot of fun and work, and we've loved every minute of them.
