COUNCIL MOVES TO ADJUST P. O. STREET TANGLE

Caucus Names Committee to Deal With U. S. in Vacation Issue.

Single Obstacle Remains to Beginning Construction of Federal Building.

Members of the city council met at a special session Monday night at the Rice Building, discussed the proposed plan to reorganize the action of adjusting to a new street system to meet the needs of the new post office and federal building.

City Attorney J. C. Criss, Mayor W. A. Anderson, and the city council members and the city engineer, J. H. Johnson, were present.

The city engineer has indicated a belief that removal of the tracks in a public square would be a detriment to the government work directly.

At the conference last Wednesday, Mr. Anderson indicated that the city engineer had indicated a belief that removal of the tracks in a public square would be a detriment to the government work directly.

The council also discussed the proposed ordinance which would be passed at the meeting.

The suggestion was also made that the council consider plans for the new post office building.
